Terms and Conditions

By nominating for an Icons of the Road profile, candidates acknowledge that the Australian Livestock and Rural Transporters Association (ALRTA) and PACCAR and Dealer Industry Fund are the Organisers and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions set by the Organisers.

Eligibility

An Icons of the Road profile is limited to anyone who:

- Has worked in the Australian transport industry for a minimum of 25 years;
- Is nominated by a member of an industry association;
- Complies with these terms and conditions of entry.

Icons will be selected by a panel of 3 judges chosen by the Organisers. The panel will be made up of a representative from PACCAR & Dealer Industry Fund, an ALRTA representative, and an industry expert.

Eligibility of all nominations will be checked by the Organisers. All eligible nominations will be forwarded to the judging panel for reading and shortlisting.

The judging panel may choose to undertake an interview with candidates.

A minimum of 1 headshot of the candidate and 3 Kenworth truck photos must be submitted with your nomination. By submitting a nomination form, nominees are authorising the Australian Livestock and Rural Transporters Association (ALRTA) and PACCAR and Dealer Industry Fund to use candidate comments, images and name for advertising and publicity purposes in any media in perpetuity without compensation.

It is the nominee's responsibility to ensure that the information submitted is complete. Partial or incomplete nomination forms or nominations without photos will not be accepted.

The Organisers are not responsible for incorrect or inaccurate entries. Any false information provided as part of any nominee's application will result in the automatic disqualification of that candidate.

By submitting a nomination form, the candidate is agreeing to participate in and co-operate as required with all reasonable marketing activities relating to the Icons of the Road profile including but not limited to being interviewed and photographed.

Final editing and inclusion to fit the profile template is at the discretion of the organisers.
